Conference Invitation

China, the European Union and the Restructuring of Global Governance

6 and 7 May 2010, Brussels

European Economic and Social Committee

(Rue van Maerlant 2, 1040 Brussels)

The InBev-Baillet Latour Chairs EU-China

at Université catholique de Louvain (UCL) and Katholieke Universiteit Leuven (KUL),

The Institute for European Studies at the Facultés Universitaires Saint Louis (FUSL),

The Institute for European Studies at UCL,

The Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies, KUL,

The Madariaga - College of Europe Foundation, are glad to invite you to this conference, organised in partnership with the European Economic and Social Committee

This Conference will analyze to what extent China and the EU share the same perception of the global governance crisis. Could they converge on cooperative solutions on finance, economy, trade, climate, energy and security related matters? How can potentially different views about the reorganization of global governance be reconciled? What are the possible scenarios for the evolution of China-EU relations in case of a failure of the transformation of the global governance system? Can EU member states adopt a common credible position on these issues? Does China perceive Europe as a single power with a sufficient degree of autonomy from the United States on these new issues?

Lunch fee is 35 € (registration required by Monday 3 May) and participation is free of charge
