

KATHOLIEKE UNIVERSITEIT
LEUVEN

INSTITUTS
D'ÉTUDES EUROPÉENNES

China, the European Union and the Restructuring of Global Governance

6-7 May 2010, Brussels

European Economic and Social Committee

DRAFT PROGRAMME

organized by

InBev-Baillet Latour Chairs EU-China, K.U.Leuven and UCL

Leuven Centre for Global Governance Studies, K.U.Leuven

Institute for European Studies, FUSL-UCL

Fondation Madariaga College of Europe Fondation

European Social and Economic Committee

INBEV
BAILLET LATOUR CHAIR
EU-CHINA

Fonds InBev-Baillet Latour Fund

Chaire InBev Baillet-Latour
« Union européenne-Chine »

CONFERENCE TIMETABLE

6 MAY 2010

9h00 : Registration

9h30 : Introduction speeches

10h00: SESSION 1

A multipolar world in crisis (I): the main challenges for global governance from a European perspective

11h00: Coffee break

11h15: A multipolar world in crisis (II): the main challenges for global governance from a Chinese perspective

12h15: Debate

13h00: Lunch

14h30: SESSION 2

The challenge of a post cold war world: global security prospects from a Chinese and from a European perspective

15h30: Coffee break

16h00: PARALLEL SESSION 3 A

The challenges of the global economic crisis (I): restructuring global financial and monetary systems

17h00: Debate

20h00: Diner

16h00 PARALLEL SESSION 3 B

The challenges of climate change and energy, European and Chinese responses (I): Climate

17h00: Debate

7 MAY 2010

9h30: SESSION 4A

The challenge of the global economic crisis (II):
the prospects for a new governance of the global trading system

10h30: Debate

11h00: Coffee break

11h15-13h15: Roundtable & Conclusion speeches

9h30: SESSION 4A

The challenges of climate change and energy,
European and Chinese responses (II): Energy

10h30: Debate